

Transit Exclusion Hearing Set; Tax Up

Two-County Directors To Meet July 1 and July 9

Directors of the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District have under consideration today a proposed budget of $458,925 which contemplates the district will be in actual transit business next year.

The new financing will require an estimated tax levy of 2.8 cents per $100 assessed property valuation. The current year's rate is 1.4 cents.

THE TOTAL budget is about $189,000 higher than last year, but a carry-over of approximately $33,000 in unspent funds will mean that only $406,000 must be raised by taxes.

Transit directors will consider the budget for adoption at their regular meeting July 1 at 8 p.m. in the supervisors' chambers of the Alameda County court house.

John McDonnell, chairman of the finance committee which made the budget proposal, said the increase was due mainly to the need for a new transit system.

Sun Class Section Best in Nation

The Sun's Classified Section was judged the best in the nation in the National Editorial Association Better Newspaper Contest for 1959.

The Sun won the award in competition with thousands of other newspapers throughout the United States.

THE SUN was also a merit award winner in the Newspaper Promotion category of the National Editorial Association contest. Receiving the plaque, donated by Elder and Shannon Classified Service will be Jean Scott, Sun classified manager.

Herman Silverman, Sun editor and publisher, will receive the award for newspaper promotion.

Here is a statement from the judges concerning The Sun's classified section:

"THE JUDGES found it not too difficult to select the classified winners, those who were standouts in typography, format, layout, copy preparation, volume.

"One of the big things in selecting the winning entries was the fact they were easy to read and easy to use.

"This the judges felt was the primary factor, in making successful classified pages and this did eliminate many of the entries who did not place in the contest.

"Lack of a variety in copy, no headings or identification and a general lack of attractiveness to the reader were found in quite a number of entries."

AGAIN, The Sun was judged by a panel of experts to have the best classified section for weeklies in the nation.

In recent years The Sun has been the winner of 17 state and national awards.

In 1959 alone, The Sun was picked as the Best Weekly Newspaper in California; was judged to have the Best Editorial Page, and was awarded a plaque for rendering the Best Women's Interest Coverage.

Zoning, Road Extension Cases Up

Oak Springs Hearing Set; Sleepy Hollow Asks Aid

By JACK SEYMOUR

The County Board of Supervisors will consider re-zoning Oak Springs area acreage at a hearing Thursday at 10 a.m. in Martinez.

At that time the supervisors are expected to act on a County Planning Commission recommendation that 16 acres above Oak Springs be re-zoned from its present R-A (half acre) to R-15 (15,000 square feet).

The property in question is owned by James W. Brown.

At a meeting May 26 the planners recommended approval of Brown's re-zoning request in spite of the objections of the Orinda Association and the Oak Springs Improvement Association.

The Orinda Association has urged retaining of a two-families-per-acre level of density in Orinda.

Another planning commission hearing will be held concerning the Orinda General Plan. It is set for Tuesday, June 30.

IN THIS CONNECTION, the Sleepy Hollow Improvement Association has asked the Orinda Association to join forces with it and oppose certain roadway extensions in Sleepy Hollow.

To get back to the Oak Springs issue, certain Orindans are concerned less the supervisors approved the proposed sub-division on grounds that re-zoning from R-A to anything less will establish a new pattern of density.

Unofficial comment in Martinez indicates that the planners recommended the re-zoning because some existing Oak Springs lots are less than R-A.

"BUT," said an Orindan, those lots in Oak Springs were developed many years ago.

"Let's not compound the error," said another community leader added, "We have nothing against the proposed sub-division — in fact I haven't even seen the plans or specifications."

"IT'S all a question of what our density pattern in Orinda is going to be."

OBSERVERS pointed out that access to the Oak Springs section is via winding roads and that the density level should be reduced rather than increased.

Another — and allegedly neutral — resident commented that "this holding on to two-families-per-acre idea for Orinda is just another example of the ostrich-like approach our people seem to enjoy."

"They're going to build more houses here and we might as well face it. Let's not be dogs-in-the-manger," he said.

In the Sleepy Hollow question, which was reported fully in the June 5 edition of The Sun, the Sleepy Hollow Association has written a letter to the Orinda Association asking for "special action" concerning road extension.

PARTIAL TEXT of the letter follows:

"We are concerned with and fully support the general position of the Orinda Association as expressed to the Planning Commission, and we urge the association to continue their efforts to keep lot size to a half acre minimum."

We especially request, however, that the Orinda Association take special action in support of the position expressed by the residents of Sleepy Hollow in regard to the extension of Lombardy Lane and Washington Lane.

We believe that these two extensions are not necessary and that if they are completed they will result in the substantial destruction of the area as it now exists for the following reasons:

IF THESE EXTENSIONS are completed on but a minimum basis, the traffic load in Sleepy Hollow will be increased to the extent of the additional traffic introduced.

The present roadways are already taxed by present local traffic. The ultimate development of the general plan would therefore certainly call for an increase in the width of Washington Lane, Sleepy Hollow Lane, and Lombardy Lane.

This improved road facility would logically breed further traffic and would:

Create greater traffic hazards for children.

Permit access to the area by persons of evil intent who now, knowing the restricted access, avoid it.

Necessitate a costly road widening project at county expense.

By the widening of roadways, destroy the tree plantings, especially along Lombardy Lane, which are such an important part of the community.

Create extremely difficult, if not impossible, driveway access problems for owners of property.

Change the entire character of an already settled community. It must be recognized that Sleepy Hollow is already ninety per cent fully occupied by homes and would thus be sacrificed for areas yet undeveloped and residents of other areas yet to come.

THE PROPOSED extensions are unnecessary because:

They are unnecessary from the standpoint of Sleepy Hollow residents, except as to emergency access which can far better be provided by permanent arrangements effecting emergency connections at Ranch Road, Normandy Lane or Canyon View.

They are unnecessary from the standpoint of other areas yet to be developed around the perimeter of Sleepy Hollow because these areas can be better served by extensions from other existing road networks or necessary new road developments.

An example is the replacement of the Bear Creek Road to the south and east of the Bear Creek Reservoir, but lying to the north and west of Sleepy Hollow.

NEW SUBDIVISIONS in the areas close to Sleepy Hollow can also be provided with adequate internal circulation connecting them to such major arteries as San Pablo Dam Road, etc.

The people of such subdivisions would welcome the privacy given them by this type of internal circulation rather than the heavy traffic of such through arteries as Washington Lane would become.

NOW THAT we have a more complete realization of the effect of the two extensions, we earnestly request you to fully endorse the position taken by the Sleepy Hollow Improvement Association with regard to the extension of Lombardy Lane and the extension of Washington Lane.

We further request that you advise the County Planning Commission of this endorsement, and that you ask that these two extensions be eliminated from the General Plan.

40 Miramonte Students Are New Phone Cable Ready for Summer Careers

Miramonte High School students participating in the Orinda Work Education Program and their parents met this week with Mrs. Betty Chilton, director, and the Citizens' Advisory Committee.

Final plans were made for this selected group of 40 Miramonte High School students to have actual experiences in the careers which they expect to follow.

IN ORDER to qualify for the program the young people have filled out a job application form and had a general aptitude test and a series of interviews.

Each participant and his parent has signed a contract which includes a code of conduct for use on the job.

Students will keep a work diary and employers will be interviewed each week by Mrs. Chilton.

Students are very enthusiastic about their jobs since they will receive an enriched experience with an expert in the field of their greatest interest.

Employers have been most cooperative in offering these opportunities to the young people. Students will not receive compensation and will work three hours daily for five weeks June 22 through July 24.

An idea of the scope of interest represented can be gained from the following list of students and their jobs.

Obtaining a comprehensive knowledge of nursing will be Laraine Axelsson, Sandra Brown, Barbara Hamburg and Sylvia Jean Howes at Merritt Hospital.

Kathie Brobeck, Carol Canon and Julia Hendrickson will work as laboratory technicians at the same hospital.

The county hospital will offer experience in medicine to Lance Chilton, John Drath and Carol Gilmore, and in medical research to Kathie Cortese and in social work to Joan Robinson.

A rounded experience in several fields of veterinarian medicine will be offered to Bill Powell, Pat Simmons and Keith Thrallkill.

Interesting jobs in specialized fields in the University of California engineering department will be the good fortune of Bruce Bole, Russell Briggs, Jim Eubler, Jim Gibbs, Greg Scarich, Phil Stevens, Roger Wessling and Mickey Wilber.

Many students vie for a very limited number of openings, stated Campbell.

Bill Cline will work in an architect's office, Tom Easterbrook at

First All Night Senior Party Was a Big Success

The first all night party of Miramonte High School held graduation night, last Thursday, was a big success.

It was enjoyed by all, thanks to the untiring efforts of the general chairman Bob and Marion Brown.

For entertainment the class enjoyed the talents of the Eastman Trio and singer Jimmy Darren.

Thanks to the generosity of the Lake Merritt Hotel and its orchestra, students had the hotel all to themselves and music until the party ended.

The decorations were Japanese and the theme for the evening "Savanna."

There was a special room set off for games. There was a characturist, and a photographer. Checkers, ping pong and bingo were played.

There were lots of door prizes as well as bingo prizes.

Balloons were released at 2 o'clock and some of them contained numbers entitling the winners to a prize.

The class of 1959 and all the committee members want to take this opportunity to thank the merchants who so generously donated the prizes.

They were: Country Club Beauty Studio, Orinda Garbage and Refuse Disposal, Patio Music Shop, Central Valley National Bank, Henderson Plumbing, Loarte's Ice Cream, Rheem, O'Brien's, Kopper Kettle, Miller's, O'Brien's, Black's Market, Robert McEligot, M.D., Dallas Young and Martin White.

Also Ken White Insurance, Orinda Pharmacy, Neldam's Bakery, Margaret Josephs, T & D, Orinda Pet Shop, Orinda Theater, Orinda Cleaners.

Ann Curtis took a first place in the 50 yard hurdles. She placed fourth in the standing broad jump and fourth in the running broad jump.

Bill Caldwell placed third in the senior division of hop-step and jump.

Jeff Neighbor placed fourth in the 440 after coming in second in the heat. Milton Howe was fifth in the 880.

Fred Neighbor, Kent Miller, Bob Bozek, Jim Bozek, Chip Smith, Rick Cannon also participated in the track and field events.

Let's Keep Politics Out, Says County Grand Jury

The 1958-59 Contra Costa County Grand Jury late last week deplored "political involvement" in the office of the county superintendent of schools and recommended sweeping changes in the manner in which he takes office.

First, he recommended that the superintendent be appointed by the elected County Board of Education, rather than elected by the voters.

Second, it advocated an increase in the superintendent's power and responsibilities as an administrator.

THIRD, the grand jury, while not "intending reflection on anyone," said the political "involvement" every four years was a "serious flaw" in the educational system.

The recommendations were incorporated in the grand jury's final committee report before being discharged this week, and it recommended immediate legislative action to remove the superintendent from the list of elected officials.

In addition, the grand jury urged appropriation of $35,000 to make a two-year county-wide survey of future school sites for the county's 34 school districts.

The report noted, however, that neither the superintendent nor the board of education has powers to appropriate such funds.

THE COUNTY school department is supported by state grants, fees paid for contract services by individual school districts and taxes levied by the board of supervisors.

The school site survey should include a comprehensive study of construction costs and plans so that all districts will have the results at least as a guide and basis of comparison with their own plans for new projects.

An increase was recommended in the office space provided for the county office and in space and facilities provided for classrooms and playground at the department's special school at juvenile hall.

The grand jury concerned itself with problems of only the County Junior College District and the San Pablo School District.

IT SAID "no good purpose would be served" by stepping into controversies of a purely local nature, which "represented lawful and democratic processes at work" in other districts.

The junior college district was praised for "outstanding achievement." It has been able to grow to its present high position of eminence in the field of education without having incurred a bonded indebtedness. . . . to the further credit of the capable persons instrumental in molding its policies and guiding its growth."

Singled out for special mention was the district's Careers of Skill through Apprenticeship program, which the grand jury said has given about half of the graduates skills in a craft, making them ready for employment.

CITIZENS OF the San Pablo School District were urged to "redouble their efforts to give the school board and administrators active support to create an improved educational program."

The grand jury noted the district had been hampered in recent years by personnel, personality and administrative problems and a factionary community that have led to a rapid turnover of board membership.

Highway Priority List to State

Highway Committee Urges Building of Second Tunnel

Contra Costa's Highway Advisory Committee Tuesday turned over a 10-point program for improvement and development of the State system of highways in the county for 1960-61 to the Coast Council of the State Chamber of Commerce.

Included in the 10-point group is a priority list for projects upon which actual construction, including programmed acquisition of right of way shall be prosecuted in the next fiscal year are the completion of the Orinda to Broadway Tunnel freeway and the construction of another bore.

THE HIGHWAY committee, consisting of mayors and civic leaders throughout the county, also asks for freeway and rapid transit studies to be coordinated and future requirements to be considered in plans for the proposed tunnel and highway.

Enforcement Committee Urges Appointive Sheriff

Contra Costa County's Law Enforcement Committee of the Grand Jury recommended the office of sheriff should be appointive in its annual report.

V. Craig Bull, committee chairman, in his report, noted the report was being submitted to the entire jury merely as a recommendation and not as criticism of the present sheriff, Walter F. Young.

"OUR REASONING is based on the premise that we can attract professional law enforcement officers to the job if they do not have to campaign and seek funds for their campaigns," Bull commented.

There is always the danger of special consideration by the sheriff to campaign contributors. An elected sheriff also has to keep in mind that he cannot alienate sections of the electorate by strict law enforcement," the report states.

We have also considered the situation where the sheriff is incompetent and is impossible to remove from office except by an election. If the board of supervisors were to be the appointing body, it would have the right to remove him," Bull added.

"We feel that should this office be an appointive one, that certain qualifications should be set up, in order that only experienced, professional law enforcement officers could apply. At the present time there are no qualifications for sheriff," the report continues.

For personnel other than sheriff the committee made the following recommendations:

1. THAT DEPUTY Sheriff, Grade I, be merged with Deputy Sheriff, Grade II.

At present, Grade I is open to males meeting the educational requirements.

Applicants need not have prior police experience. Personnel in this grade are restricted to performing jailer duties at the main jail and the rehabilitation center in Clayton.

Deputy Sheriff, Grade II, is open to males meeting the educational requirements, plus applicants must have prior police experience.

The Grade I Deputy is usually the most desirable type inasmuch as he is young, eager and physically fit. This grade at present cannot be used on patrol.

Grade II position is filled by police officers from other jurisdictions, and many of these are rejects and molcontents from previous police departments.

As a consequence, the average age of these deputies is in the 30's and growing older.

BY MERGING these two positions the Sheriff's office would be forced to recruit new men and would be responsible for recruit training, thus giving a higher grade of deputy.

In the past, the department has depended on other police organizations to do their training, and thus have acquired men trained in methods not compatible with the efficient running of a Sheriff's office.

In order that a semi-military organization operate efficiently it is accepted practice to give "In-Service Training."

This training consists of learning the skills necessary to apprehend and convict criminals and also includes training in the elements of crimes, preservation of evidence, investigative techniques and hand-to-hand combat.

The training should also include regular practice in fire-arms in order that the officer has a chance of hitting his target.

Up to the regime of the present Sheriff there has never been any in-service training and it is felt that the police officer has thus been handicapped. This is the only organization visited that did not have in-service training as well as training of recruits in these same subjects.

UP TO THE REGIME of the present sheriff it was found that the ammunition supply had been completely depleted, and the only .38 calibre cartridges on hand were those in the belts of the deputies.

The camera equipment necessary to photograph crime scenes was all in need of repair and it was necessary to have a press photographer photograph the crime scene of the murder in Orinda.

At present there is no gun vault for the storing of pistols, machine guns, shotguns, shotguns and rifles. This presents a danger of theft as well as slovenly handling of fire-arms by police personnel.

AT PRESENT the filing system is inadequate in that an officer must go to three separate files to obtain a suspect's photograph, fingerprints and prior record.

The Chiefs of Police in the County stated that they could not rely on the Sheriff's identification bureau and therefore, they did not use it.

Space in the Sheriff's office is inadequate even though there have been recent additions.

There is no Evidence Room which is necessary for the preservation of the chain of evidence. There is no crime laboratory and the detective division, the sheriff, the juvenile bureau and the identification bureau are all jammed together thus allowing no privacy.

The detective division does not have an interrogation room. This room is extremely necessary in the investigation of conduct of an individual.

THE MAIN JAIL in Martinez can be improved upon from a security standpoint. At present the prisoners being booked can attack the jailer as he turns his back to admit new prisoners through the prisoner's entrance. There is much unscreened glass in the holding cells which would allow prisoners to break it and use pieces as a weapon on jailers.

In the male cell blocks there are no metal mirrors which would allow a jailer to see prisoners hiding in the rear of the cell blocks, and thus is created a danger to the jailer and an opportunity for a jailbreak.

The Prison Farm has inadequate facilities and the Sheriff's office is to be commended for the job it is doing despite insufficient funds. Profits made from the efforts of the prisoners on the farm should be funded for reinvestment in Farm improvement.

The prisoners at the farm should be used in labors which would not compete with free labor or enterprise. Cleaning of county highways and canals.

THE COUNTY is faced with a completely inadequate number of patrolmen. There are 734 square miles of area within the county and the sheriff's office is responsible for 657 square miles and the protection of 200,000 in that area.

From midnight to 8 a.m. there are only eight deputies serving this area.

From 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. there are eight patrol deputies and three deputies performing transportation duties.

From 4 p.m. to midnight there are 12 deputies on patrol.

AS AN EXAMPLE of our inadequate coverage there are only two deputies in one car on the 12 to 8 a.m. shift covering an area that encompasses Orinda, Lafayette, Canyon, Moraga, Pleasant Hill and San Ramon.

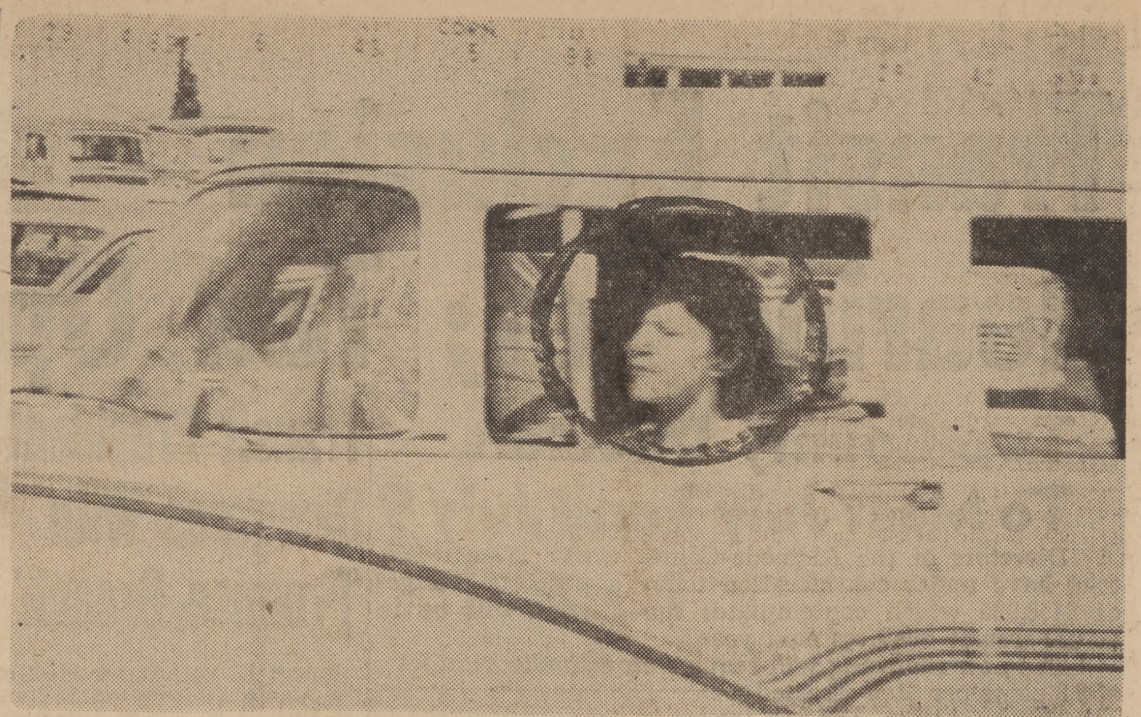

It is, therefore, easy for a criminal desiring to commit a crime in one area to phone the Sheriff of a false crime in another area and thus assure himself of no police coverage in the crime area.

More patrolmen should be placed in the sheriff's office and that until the time arrives when we can obtain more, that the deputies patrol only one to a car—should there be need for two men because of a crime, that the deputy involved could radio for help and keep the criminal under surveillance until his partner arrives.

"We are fully aware that to follow our recommendations for more patrolmen, more training, more equipment and more space that it will be necessary for greater capital outlay by the public. We feel that this can be done by possibly changing the emphasis of our present tax dollar and reappraising the importance of certain functions. Law Enforcement benefits all of the people (those who pay the taxes) whereas Welfare benefits only a non-contributory group. As an example, the County spends approximately $13 million dollars on charities and welfare but only $2 million dollars on law enforcement which protects our property and person and is an investment which is more than returned in the value of property saved and recovered, and by the individual rights protected," the report argues.

"At present, because of inadequate funds, the sheriff cannot investigate any crime less than a felony. Last year, there were 285 complaints that could not be investigated. These included assaults, child molesting, indecent exposure, petty theft, prowlers and trespassing. Bull's report said.

"In summary, we of the jury commend the present Sheriff for the action he and the Under-Sheriff have taken to alleviate some of the problems which have been pointed out. It must be kept in mind that the Sheriff has not had adequate time to completely reorganize a sheriff's department which was totally inadequate," the report concludes.

Law Enforcement Group Asks for 'Picked' Coroner

The Law Enforcement Committee of the County Grand Jury urged that a minimum requirement be established for the office of coroner and the position become appointive rather than elective.

"One of the functions of the coroner is that of law enforcement officer who comes on the scene when violence occurs and the result is death.

"At present, there are no qualifications for the position of coroner.

"We recommend that the position be appointive and that minimum qualifications be set forth.

"WE FEEL THAT one of the qualifications should be that the coroner be a medical doctor in order that he can intelligently interpret the medical reports of the pathologist.

"We also recommend that there be a county morgue located centrally and we have been informed that the space for such a morgue has been offered by the Martinez County Hospital," the report recommends.

"We commend the present coroner for his stand in preserving the right of the family to free choice of morticians. We also commend him for his not selecting a few morticians to be deputy coroners and thus creating a possibility of confusion in the control of coroner's cases. We feel that a central morgue would give even tighter control," committee members commented.

"We also recommend that the coroner's jury be appointed from a list, and that these jurors be paid as are jurors serving on other juries. At present, it is possible for the constable to select the jury and continually select the same individuals. The jury list would allow a rotation, the report concludes.

Wake Island Marine Hero In Orinda 'Retirement'

At home in Orinda is one of the nation's heroes after more than 30 years of service with the U.S. Marine Corps.

He is Brigadier General Herbert C. Freuler who has retired and "settled down" in Orinda.

"Settling down" in General Freuler's case means he will go back to the University of California to earn his master's degree in chemistry. Future plans include teaching chemistry.

WHILE ATTENDING the university, the general will be going to school with his oldest son, Jon, an engineering student.

General and Mrs. Freuler have two other children, Dick and Suzanne.

When World War II broke out in December, 1941, the enemy engulfed far-flung outposts and garrisons but suddenly reeled back in shock after striking Wake Island.

THIS LITTLE dot in the Pacific was defended by a small band of Marines. They weren't many in number, and they had only 12 F4F "Wildcat" fighter planes and twelve pilots to fly them but one of these was 34-year-old Captain Herbert Freuler.

The first sneak attack on the Wake Island outpost put eight of the 12 planes out of commission but the remaining four wreaked such havoc on the Imperial Fleet that the Japanese Admiral in charge felt compelled to praise the daring and skill of Captain Freuler and his cohorts.

WHEN THE enemy tried to effect a landing on Wake, the "Wildcats" teamed up with the shore batteries to sink two destroyers and so badly damaged three cruisers, three destroyers, one destroyer-transport and one troop transport, that the enemy drew off.

Captain Freuler dropped one bomb directly on a troop-laden transport, setting it afire.

The dazed enemy started a systematic bombing of Wake by land-based and carrier-based planes which lasted 11 days.

Day after day the hopelessly outnumbered "Wildcats" went up to do battle with the superior "Zero" fighters and "Betty" bombers.

They continued to dazzle, harass and destroy the enemy planes but the attrition was too great.

Finally, on December 22, the Wake Island defenders had only two planes left.

BOTH WERE pieced together from other wrecked aircraft.

The enemy came over with thirty-nine planes and Captain Freuler and another pilot went up to attack at nearly 20-to-1 odds, against them.

While Captain Freuler was fighting six "Zeros" single-handedly, his fellow-pilot tore into a formation of bombers and was last seen pouring fire into one while his own plane was being attacked by a fighter plane.

AS THE LAST Marine flyer in the air, Captain Freuler shot down one "Zero," flipped his plane into a difficult opposite approach and attacked another.

It exploded only 50 feet below him sending a curtain of flame and flying fragments about his plane. His controls were damaged.

Another "Zero" riddled his engine and still another poured machine-gun slugs into his cockpit. One bullet went through his shoulder and two more lodged in the back.

Even though seriously wounded, the captain made a valiant effort to save the plane by crash-landing it on the gutted Wake Island strip. The plane was useless—Wake was without aircraft.

The next day Wake was overwhelmed and surrendered.

Although Captain Freuler and the Wake Island Marines were captured and held prisoner for 44 months, they managed to inflict 1153 casualties on the enemy, destroy 21 of his planes, damage 51 others, sink two war ships and damage eight more at the cost of eighty-one Marines.

After the war, Colonel Freuler served as commanding officer of Marine Corps Air Facilities, Santa Ana, California, graduated from the Armed Forces College in 1950, remained there as an instructor in logistics, completed the Naval War College in Newport, R.I. and served as Chief of Staff of the First Marine Aircraft Wing in Japan.

Central Welfare Council Tells Concord Meet Plans

Growing Pains will be the topic of an address by Miss Mildred Erickson of San Mateo, at the second annual luncheon meeting of the Central Community Welfare Council, a Crusade Agency, next Friday at noon at the Concord Inn, president Mrs. Rene Dana of Lafayette recently announced.

Miss Erickson, executive director of the San Mateo Community Welfare Council, will discuss changes in communities caused by expanding population with the resultant spreading social and youth problems.

She also will outline the role of welfare council towards becoming a representative community planning body for professionals and the public.

THE AGENDA of the annual meeting will include a report by the nominating committee; election of officers for the 1959-60 term; an annual report by the president; and reports of section chairmen and executive director.

Mrs. George J. Planz of Lafayette, executive director of the Volunteer Bureau of Contra Costa County, is nominations committee chairman.

Members include Mrs. J. L. Taylor of Pleasant Hill and Mrs. J. Orr Kyle of Alamo.

Mrs. Dana will present an annual report; section chairman reporting will include Mrs. Kyle, Diablo Valley Girl Scouts Council, group work section; and Mrs. Lloyd Cantrell of Pleasant Hill, health section.

LOUIS A. Ruybalid, executive director of the Crusade-supported welfare council will review and outline proposed plans for the coming year's operations.

Exhibits on display will be highlighted by the group work section under Mrs. Kyle's direction. This will display the services to children from 7 to 17 in the East (Pittsburg - Antioch - Delta area) and Central (Diablo Valley, Concord, Martinez, Pleasant Hill, San Ramon, Danville, Alamo) sections of Contra Costa.

Mrs. Loyse Casebolt, executive director of the American Heart Association is program and arrangements chairman, and Mrs. J. L. Taylor co-chairman.

Reservations for the $1.75 luncheon, which is open to the public, are being taken at 1915 Parkside Avenue, Concord.

Crescent Jewelry Will 'Hit 'Em' In U.S. Open

Oakland's Crescent Jewelers, winner of the Pacific Coast Polo Championships in March, will play in the National Open Championships in Chicago in September, Vic Grabar, team captain, announced today.

Grabar, 25 Rheem Boulevard, Orinda, said the team will include Dr. Billy Linfoot, Menlo Park, rated at nine goals, and two members of the Chicago Oakbrook Club, Cecil Smith and Jackie Murphy.

It will play in the tournament at the California-Illinois Crescents.

KENNETH POTTER is one of the noted artists whose work will be seen at the Broadway Shopping Center June Jamboree and Art Show, June 18, 19, and 20. Here he is photographed in his studio. Potter's work is well known throughout California. A graduate of the Academy of Art, he is the recipient of many major art awards. Be sure to see the Sidewalk Art Show during the June Jamboree at your Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek. Merchants are featuring big values during the Jamboree and, of course, all paintings are for sale.

Merger Asked by Grand Jury Unit

The Law Enforcement Committee of the Contra Costa County Grand Jury recommended the Constable position be eliminated and the sheriff's office assimilate the duties.

V. Craig Bull chairman, in the committee's annual report, points out the jury does not feel it is necessary to have constables.

"In the years gone by there was a lack of communication between population areas and it was necessary to have a local enforcement officer," says the report.

"In our modern age of rapid transit and communications we feel there is no longer any need to have constables make arrests, serve processes and summons and other legal papers," the report continues.

"Such activity by the constable duplicates the efforts of the deputy sheriffs. We recommend that the Constable be absorbed by the Sheriff's Department and thus give us more central control over police officers and lower expense of protection by eliminating duplication," the report continues.

Law enforcement committee members are Elwood P. Laws, Howard H. Reed, Fred G. Weisch, and Stewart L. Wade.

Motor vehicle registration in the United States during 1958 totaled 68,299,408, according to the National Automobile Club.

Acalanes Board Approves $2 1/2 Million School Budget

A tentative budget of $2,597,575 has been approved by Acalanes High School District trustees for 1959-60.

"The estimated four per cent increase in the 1959-60 budget has been held down by reduction of capital expenditures," trustees said.

"However, despite cuts for capital outlay, the new tentative budget will represent an increase of $278,925 over current costs."

SCHOOL OFFICIALS explained that part of the increased costs for next year is due to an enrollment rise of 12 per cent as compared with an estimated five per cent increase in the district's assessed valuation.

"Our approximate estimate of a seven cent or less increase in the high school tax rate reflects, in part, the difference between the rate of growth between the increase of 12 per cent for enrollment and the five per cent increase for assessed valuation—a difference which must be made up in the tax rate," Ross Reagan, district business manager said.

In further explanation of the tentative budget, District Superintendent Neil Parsons noted, "that capital outlay expenditures are being reduced by $117,340 under last year."

"However, this reduction is offset by a larger enrollment and higher personnel costs which force an increase in the operational budget for 1959-60," Parsons said.

"PENDING PASSAGE of a new reimbursement law by the State legislature and final determination of the district's assessed valuation, next year's operational tax may run $1.80, or less," school officials said.

The present operational tax limit is $1.75.

Trustees expect to get the estimated extra nickel (or less) from over-ride allowances for deriving funds for district contributions to personnel retirement funds and for community use of school facilities.

In other action this week, trustees:

Approved a towel service contract for three years with Crockett Home Laundry, slightly under the costs for the previous contract; accepted bids for equipment for $2,979; called for bids for an irrigation system for Las Lomas landscaped areas.

Approved appointment of Lloyd Hunt, teacher, counselor and head of the math department at Miramonte for the past four years, as head of counseling at Miramonte.

Accepted the Del Valle High sewer installation and requested annexation to the Contra Costa Sanitary District for the Del Valle site.

REQUESTED THE superintendent make arrangements to bring a Stanford survey of future district facilities, enrollment, finances and school sites up to date.

The board will meet again June 29 and recess during July.

Vacation Time Brings Added Traffic Hazards

Extra caution will be required of drivers during the next few weeks as millions of California students put aside their books to start the annual summer vacation season, the California State Automobile Association has reminded.

Both children and motorists must be made aware of the additional hazards, presented during the summer when youngsters spend more of their time playing outdoors, said the AAA motorists' organization.

HERE ARE SOME of the steps suggested by the CSAA for avoiding hazardous situations: Re-emphasize the safety knowledge children have been taught in school. Know where your children are at all times and make sure they do not play in streets or other hazardous locations.

ENCOURAGE children to use parks and recreational facilities or their own yards for play. Check with your local park and recreation district for information concerning their program.

Motorists must use extra caution when passing parks, playgrounds or other recreational facilities. In many instances crossing guards will not be on duty. Since there are no set hours, children may be crossing streets at any time.

BE ALERT also when passing schools as many will be offering summer programs for youngsters.

Watch for bicyclists. They are more plentiful during the summer.

Do not permit hitch hiking. On family outings, do not overload the car. Maintain discipline so that the driver is not disturbed.

Art Show Will Be Featured At Broadway June Jambore

Two vivacious young women, are the movement to "bring art to the people."

They are responsible for the forthcoming "Art Show" at the Broadway Shopping Center June 18 through June 20, during the June Jamboree sales event.

The "sidewalk art exhibit" will be on view from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. and on Friday until 9 p.m.

The former school teachers, University of California graduates, are Wanda Hansen and Jamie Peterman.

Both 24, they got "in the art business" as an aftermath of a sculpturing course in Carmel.

They found that art was plentiful in Carmel—but buyers were relatively scarce.

So they decided to market artists' work where the people are.

It was rough going at first—there were problems of exhibiting paintings and storing others.

But word got around that the firm of Hansen and Peterman was doing the almost impossible—"selling paintings."

Now they are bringing art to the people at low prices—work by noted California artists.

This brings good art to people who cannot afford a Picasso or an Old Master.

At the Broadway Art Show you will see work by such outstanding artists as William Weber, Anna Wu Weakland, Ken Potter and Tom Elliot.

Also Harold and Mabel Landaker, Pat Cucaro and Rip Matleson.

The artists have won many major awards for their paintings in exhibitions throughout the United States and abroad.

Other winners are Wilfred Provan, Robert Watson and Peter Blos.

All of these artists and many more will have their work on display at the Art Show.

There will be art demonstrations daily.

Of course, all paintings are for sale. Installments are accepted by the team of Hansen and Peterman.

Make a date to visit the Broadway June Jamboree and Art Show, June 18 through 20 from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. except Friday when stores are open until 9 p.m.

During the June Jamboree-Art Show at the Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek, the center stores are featuring outstanding values.

Summer Session Announced for Arts College

A distinguished faculty of guest instructors has been announced for the 53rd summer session at the California College of Arts and Crafts.

They will join with members of CCAC's faculty to present courses in painting, drawing, silk-screen, watercolor, ceramics, printmaking, weaving and photography.

Also metal and jewelry work, advertising, industrial and interior design, art history, philosophy and theory of art, public school art methods, and art for children and teen-agers.

MARRIAGE MONTH

June has been a time for marriages since the early days of Rome. Some authorities believe this month was named for Juno, the queen of the gods, who was the patron goddess of marriage, according to The World Book Encyclopedia.

Go To Church Sunday

Church of Christ Methodist

"Acting Under Persecution" is the sermon topic for the 11 a.m. worship service of the church in Orinda meeting at 11 Crest View Drive.

Brother Joseph Vaughn of the Hayward Church will be bringing the morning message.

The communion service will be remembered at the start of the morning service as usual.

Christians everywhere are admonished to remember Christ's death in this way every first day of the week, examining oneself with prayer and consecration to the perfecting of a more consecrated life.

THE BIBLE school starts at 9:45 a.m. with classes for adults and children. Prayer meeting begins at 8 p.m. on Wednesday each week.

Color Bible film strips are available for showing in the homes of those who would like to know more about the Bible. Once a person sees the over all picture of the Bible he is able to understand, appreciate and study it more intelligently.

It is the purpose of these film strips to present an interesting and helpful study of God's holy word.

Many have benefited from these films.

These are shown free by consecrated Christians who desire to teach God's holy book. For your opportunity to benefit in this way call CL 4-2790.

The summer schedule of services will go into effect on the fourth Sunday after Trinity at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, St. Stephen's Drive and Las Vegas Road, Orinda, with holy communion at 7:30 a.m., family worship at 9 a.m., and morning prayer at 10 a.m.

Family worship at 9 o'clock is a service designed to arouse children to church attendance and to provide them with continuous religious instruction during the church school recess, at the same time offering a satisfying worship experience for adults.

It will consist of a shortened form of morning prayer with a sermonette by the Rev. Albert Lucas, rector. There will be no nursery care during this service as children are expected to attend with their parents.

The 10 o'clock service will be a regular morning prayer with the senior choir singing under the direction of Lawrence Moe, University of California organist, who will substitute for Richard Colvig, regular choirmaster and organist, for the next two weeks while the latter is on vacation.

There will be a full sermon by the rector, and officers of the senior choir will be installed. They are Elmo Moorhead, president; Irene DeCosta, vice president; Anne Veilmeyer, secretary; and Lyndon Vivrette, treasurer.

Nursery care will be available in the basement of the rectory during this service.

Mid-week celebrations of holy communion will be held Wednesday at 10 a.m. and Thursday at 7 a.m.

Elementary Bridge Clubs Report 70% Income Gain

The bridge program sponsored by the Parents' Clubs of the Orinda school area last week concluded its 1958-59 year.

This has been by far the most successful year in the history of the school bridge program. The school bridge chairmen and their co-workers thanked all the players who so generously and faithfully contributed to the success of this fund-raising effort.

THE TOTAL income for the elementary school area was $1465, an increase of about 70% over last year's income.

This is the first year that each school has had its own Parents' Club, rather than participating in an area-wide Mothers' Club.

Under the new organization, it became necessary to set up a different system for the collection of funds, to insure the correct allocation of income to each of the Parents' Clubs.

A "report card" was designed for use by the chairman of each bridge section, showing the exact amount of income per school collected at each meeting of her group.

The data from these cards was recorded at the end of each month by the school chairmen, on a tally sheet.

With this method of accounting, it was felt that there could be no question as to the division of funds.

The income per school was as follows: Orinda, $444.90; Glorieta, $355.67; Del Rey, $256.90; Sleepy Hollow, $205.15; Pine Grove, $203.19.

THE NUMBER of players participating in the program increased from just over 200 last year, to 290 this year.

Included for the first time this year are 62 husbands, playing with their wives in the new couples' groups.

The couples sections were started in September, and have proved to be quite popular.

A simplified summer program for the church school will go into effect this Sunday. Pre-school children will continue to meet at 979 First Street.

The kindergarten will be held at the insurance office at the manager's office.

SECOND GRADE children and older will attend church with their families.

There will be a celebration of holy communion on Wednesday at 10 a.m. at the Canterbury Chapel, adjoining the vicarage.

Congregational

The Orinda Community Church will continue the summer schedule Sunday morning with one service at 10 o'clock.

The Rev. Chauncey Blossom's sermon topic will be "You Need God." The senior choir, under the direction of Maurice Ellison, will sing "Love Divine" by Thompson.

Church school classes through the 8th grade will convene at the same hour.

A film "The Life of Christ" will be shown in Fellowship Hall to the junior and junior high departments. This series will continue through the summer months.

The information class for new members will be held in the Livingstone Room Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Baptist

"The Commuter" will be the sermon topic of Rev. Alan D. Southwell at the 11 a.m. worship service of the Moraga Community Baptist Church this Sunday.

Now meeting in the Moraga Grade School, School Street, Moraga.

Extended session for kindergarten and primary children is provided.

Sunday school for every age starts at 9:45 a.m. with a flannel-graph story of creation by Elsie Hunter.

Junior high and senior high young people meet at 6:45 p.m. in the Moraga School for fellowship and inspiration.

WOMEN'S yokefellow group meets at 10 a.m. Wednesday morning in the Moraga Grade School for a time of sharing, study and prayer. A nursery is provided. All meetings held in the Moraga Grade School, School Street.

FIRE PROTECTION
Editor's Note:

(Gentlemen:

CHURCH NEWS

Dear Editor:
About a month or six weeks ago your paper ran a story with a picture of the approaching dedication of the Church. Two weeks ago the paper ran a re-run of the same story with very little change except some correction of the original story. But not one word was printed in THE SUN last week relative to all the events of our Dedication or of our Anniversary Dinner.

We had sent an announcement to THE SUN of the events of the Anniversary Dinner, which noted that the Rev. Fred Morrow, who had been Pastor of this Church for ten years, was returning to speak at the dinner, and which noted also that The Rev. Stuart Leroy Anderson, of the Pacific School of Religion, would speak at the Dedication Service on Sunday afternoon; that Dr. William David Pratt, Minister of the Northern California Congregational Conference, and Mr. Bruce Copeland, President of the Central Contra Costa Council of Churches would also participate in the Service.

We felt, and still feel, that this was newsworthy enough that we would not have to specifically request the presence of photographers and reporters. We thought surely some effort would have been made to cover these events. Surely you are aware of the unique and important role that this Church has played in the history and development of the Orinda community. Surely the Rev. Fred Morrow had a warm and wonderful place in the affection and hearts of the people of Orinda, and one would have expected some note of his coming.

A great many people have called the Church or have spoken to me personally asking why THE SUN made not one mention of the events of that week. I truly believe you might have even made some slight editorial comment about it.

I know you give the churches considerable free space, but I think that this is, what you consider, the role of a newspaper in a community. However, I do want to communicate to you my own personal disappointment, and the amazement of many people who are not even members of this Church, over the failure of THE SUN in any way to note the events of our Church's 20th Anniversary or the dedication of what we believe to be a significant landmark in Orinda.

I must also point out that we consistently attempt to get our news in to you on time as you request, and yet twice in the last month even our own releases which were sent to you were not printed. This last week it was particularly serious since it announced a change of time for the summer.

We hope that we can always cooperate with you. We are grateful for many things that you do with your newspaper. I hope that you will understand that this criticism is offered with no ill-will, but with a very real concern that the significant events in the life of the Church shall be more adequately presented to the people.

CHAUNCEY E. BLOSSOM

(Editor's Note: On June 5 The Sun ran a front page story six inches in length concerning the dedication. On May 1 The Sun carried a three-column photograph and caption about the church with an 11-inch story—also on Page One. We regret we had no news of the dedication).

Father, Son Adventurers Have Picnic

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Baker, 618 Moraga Highway, were hosts to the Orinda Fathers and Sons Adventurers' family picnic last Sunday.

The Adventurers are an organization of 9 to 12 year old boys and their fathers sponsored by the Mt. Diablo YMCA.

Officers of the club are Jim Baker, president; Jim Babcock, vice president; Jimmy Campbell, secretary; and Kent Williams, treasurer.

ATTENDING the picnic were the Messrs. John Babcock, James Campbell, Harry Clemons, Percy Dawson, Edward Elmore, William Odom, Otto Schraeder, Robert Williams and David Fayram.

In addition to enjoying barbecued chicken, corn-on-the-cob and cake, the fathers and sons played a baseball game at the Del Rey School playground.

Guests at the affair were two foreign students attending the University of California: Hassim Ali, of Baghdad, Iraq, and Eric Ha of Hong Kong.

They told the group about their homelands and experiences in California.

Thoolen Appointed General Manager

Appointment of Sven I. Thoolen of Orinda to the position of general manager of California Cotton Mills Company has been announced.

Thoolen will be responsible for the general management of all mill operations with the exception of sales activities.

to us since we moved to Orinda a bit more than a year ago.

Some of the service were spectacular, at the time my husband asked the advice of your department about a fire extinguisher. Your man spent five minutes pointing out the potential dangers and further pointed out that we should rely on a fire department.

Another unspectacular moment came during the course of a safety check when Mr. Devani drew our attention to a gas pipe which was almost rusted away.

During these last sixteen months we have been host to two extremely serious accidents which selected children as their victims.

Each case we turned to your men for help. In each case we found competence and understanding with no thought of reward.

On The Lighter Side

By DORRIS DALY

Twelve beats on the ceremonial tom tom brought big and little braves of the Mohawk Tribe of the Lafayette Nation to a Pow Wow around the Big Chief's Council Fire at Camp Gualala last week for a camp-out on the Russian River.

As the colorful and feather be-decked chiefs presided over the rituals for the 'gathering of nations,' the medicine man stamped and hooped to invoke the Great Spirit's help in teaching his braves to "preserve His work in forest, field and stream."

The Y Indian Guides is a father-son group (no squaws allowed), sponsored by the YMCA and employs Indian lore for programs and projects as it offers a common interest level for all braves.

Members of the Mohawk Tribe were Big Arrow, Little Arrow and Little Bear (James, Kent and Bruce Robertson), Big Eagle and Little Eagle (Edward and Eddie Belegarde), Big Feather and Little Feather (Joe and David Cutia), Evening Star and Shooting Star (Ben and David Smith) and guests Jim Watson and Stephen and Ricky Hess.

Some folks don't care about retiring: After having served as president of the Heidi Chapter of the Children's Home Society, Mrs. Glenn Stubblefield of Glen Road accepted the position of over-all chairman for "Feminine Fancies," a fashion show scheduled to be held at the Castlewood Country Club October 15.

Mrs. Stubblefield was presented with a decorative pair of venetian glass birds as a token of appreciation for her productive work as past-president while the group enjoyed a salad-buffet luncheon held in her home last Tuesday.

"Feminine Fancies" will provide models with clothes from H. Liches Bros. and will be managed by the following committee chairmen: Tickets and reservations, Mesdames E. E. Cappell and Andrew Young; decorations, E. S. Plescia and Jack Campbell; seating, A. E. Stiesvater; programs, L. A. Frank; fashion show, Charles Morrill; surprise gift, R. G. Falk and O. R. Hayes; models, T. H. Lassagne and W. A. Siebert; publicity, James Newcomb; procurement, J. M. Browning; and benefit drawing, R. P. Cornelison.

Alumnae of the East Bay Kappa Kappa Gamma met at the Alamo home of Mrs. Bradley Bogue Thursday for a pool side luncheon that climaxed the year's activities for the group. Bridge followed refreshments, and as the sun rose higher, some were more inclined to enjoy a dip while others continued with their bidding.

Among other functions during the past months were a dutch auction and a Christmas party which added to proceeds that benefit the East Bay Retarded Children's Home.

Alumnae from Orinda were Mesdames Robert Miller, Dana Leavitt, E. L. de Laveaga and David Brunson. From Walnut Creek, G. K. Lemke, and from Alamo, Louis Plummer. Jan and Frank Penque left the green hills of Lafayette for the hot sands and dry (?) climes of Las Vegas for a stay at the fabulous new 'Stardust' where the dancers are French imports and the stage is a transitive masterpiece.

All the glamour held the Penques for only a week, however, as they continued on to Reno to visit relatives and friends before returning home.

and offspring Judy, Dusty and Peggy will trudge into the rugged mountain area on their own steam. . . . Happy fishing and don't forget the compass!

Betty is one of those energetic individuals who needs more hours per day than nature allows: Aside from raising her three children and presiding as Director of Epochs for the Jobs Daughters, Bethel 218, she attends the Contra Costa Junior College . . . "Just to make certain I don't stagnate" . . . the girl sez!

Yellow Cymbidiums . . . (orchids to you) . . . adorned the shoulder of Mrs. Keith (Peg) Johnson, outgoing president of the Valleymont Auxiliary of the Booth Memorial Hospital at a luncheon in the Cape Cod House where members of the auxiliary presented her with an inscribed bracelet as a keepsake from the following: Mesdames James Y. Robertson, Edward Belegarde, Perry Holmes, Charles Cooper, C. O. Berggren, Allan Brooks, Malcolm Allen, Dean P. La Field, and Lois Villa.

WHAT is going to happen to all the lovely green lawns in Concord if no one stays home to water? Among those who have better things to do: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gailus and their three daughters have taken to the airlines for vacations in Wisconsin and Boston. Mrs. G. H. Young is flying to Columbia, Miss., to attend the graduation exercises at Stevens College where daughter Pamela will receive her sheepskin.

Doctor and Mrs. L. R. Martin vacationed in Portland and Gold Beach, Oregon, and boated up the Rogue River. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garrels spent some pleasant days in Pasadena, then on to San Luis Obispo to visit their son George. On their homeward trip, they stayed at the Hearst Castle at San Simeon. Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Miller will be watering elsewhere, however, when they leave for Delaware on July 1st as the Millers are being transferred to Wilmington.

Bud and Barbara Spitzack (she is member of the Hummingbird unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center), were pleasantly surprised the other evening when "old buddy" Dick Bland called his Walnut Creek friends from the International Airport in San Francisco. The Spitzacks dashed over to pick up Dick who now lives in Wonder Lake, Illinois, and who flies for the American Airlines to bring him to our fair county for an overnight stay.

Bud and Barbara are feeling nostalgic already, but look for-

Woodmans Celebrate Anniversary

Marge Orvall Sutton, and Sally, spent a delightful afternoon Sunday in Mountain View at the home of Vaughn and Del Rice, where with Vaughn's sister, Vera Bristow and her husband Ned, chaplain of the Glendale Sanitarium, Glendale, they celebrated the golden wedding anniversary of their mother and father, Ira J. Woodman.

Woodman is one of the officials of the Pacific Press at Mountain View.

The Rice home and gardens were beautifully decorated with a golden entwined path to the door, golden bells, cascades of golden roses, and golden wishing well and tables of cakes and orders.

Marge and Orval helped welcome guests at the door as Ned Bristow took movies of more than 200 guests arriving to bring good wishes and celebrate the wonderful once in a lifetime occasion of the Woodmans anniversary.

Hail and hearty the Woodmans stood in line from 3 until 7 with beaming faces and more pep than most of the younger people.

Tanager Unit Gives $1000

The Tanager Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center held its regular monthly meeting recently at the home of Mrs. Stanley Nightingale of Orinda. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Les Hink, Jr., Mrs. Robert Williams and Mrs. Dwight Dickinson.

Although the unit does not meet during the summer, it will continue to drive patients to the Center, and prepare for fall activities.

Residents of the Parkmead area were whiffing the delightful aroma of barbecued steak last weekend as Bud and Nancy Cassani welcomed Judy and Vince Diers and Bill and Joyce Thomas as new neighbors with a patio dinner. Nancy is quite the hostess . . . She also held a coffee klatch to introduce Carol Danzig, Joyce Thomas and Mable Goodale to the "girls" in Parkmead.

Dean and Peggy La Field of Lafayette entertained Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dinwoodie from Florida as their ship docked at San Francisco last weekend for a three-day stopover on their world cruise.

The Dinwoodies were introduced to the five La Field children: Dianne, David, Johnathan, Elizabeth and Sharon and participated in a poolside barbecue, but had to make room for Dianne and her friends from the Jobs Daughters as 30 young belles took over the pool for a Saturday night swim party. Sunday saw the adults back to the big city for dinner at Ernie's and a farewell as the guests returned to their stateroom and ports West.

Sun Society Junior League Holds Play Day in Moraga

By MARIE MONAHAN

It was easy to identify the guests of honor during the Oakland Junior League's annual play day held June 9 at the Moraga Greenwood estate in Moraga.

The attractive provisionals, including an even dozen from this side of the tunnel, were the center of attraction. On them were lavished full-flavored lavender leis and lots of attention. And that is as it should be. A bit of pampering before the pitching in. For after the summer hiatus, these same young matron-neophytes will undergo an arduous training program conducted by the league to indoctrinate the women into the wherefores and workings of the community and its services.

The traditional Play Day party was strictly for fun. Bathing suits and box lunches were the order of the day. A refreshment bar was set up at one end of the pool that centers the lush rolling lawn overlooking the Greenwood house below. Already deeply tanned was Jane Smoot, who with her husband, Joe, and sons live in a new house on her parents' pastoral property.

Sis Larkin and Jody Allen, an Orinda duo, turning out in twin suits, Jody wearing the matching floral print skirt cape fashion to ward off a barn. Sis had earlier duties dispensing the latest league membership books which include pictures of new provisionals as well as of sustaining members (a nice way of putting it for members "over 40").

Languishing ladies... near the diving board, a passel of pretty provisionals waiting patiently for the photog's fini... Here, Dianne Novascione of Orinda wearing a white eyelet suit topped with a matching pocket, she telling of late summer plans, sans small fry, for La Jolla with her husband Jack. Provisional Sis Breuner of Orinda looking for her towel... Ann Ward of Lafayette, an active member of the Valley Art Center, being tapped for pictures as an "old league member" and someone laughing. ("You know we haven't and old members in league.") Tall Gail Lowry anticipating her second family addition (on the morrow!) looking forward to an Indian summer fling at Echo Lake when the new regime at their Alamo root settles down a bit.

Compliments for the cozy pool-house where clothes were hung instead of on the proverbial hickory limb. After cocktails and lunch, groups banding together for bridge, some swimming, most mainly just circulating from one gab-fest to the next. Joan Calder and MyMy Howden the first ones to take the "plunge." Joanne Brunson of Orinda, in dark glasses and a cute new coif, looking for all the world like Doris Day. That smile of hers! Ditto a double for Mary Martin, petite Jean Rawson of Sleepy Hollow with that close-cropped honey colored head of hers!

A sleek white suit for Cynthia Stampely, she with posh plans for the Orinda Branch Children's Hospital benefit tomorrow night which she co-chairs with Jackie O'Connor. The latter lady's unusual suit had a halter-neck top, tiny buttons down front.

Basking away was Carol Platt of Orinda. Her enviable summer plans include the entire session in Hawaii where they are taking a house with their three children (Provisional Jan Christensen is Carol's sister-in-law). Fran Leavitt chatting with Marian Eymann of Lafayette... Janet Yager, Sue Beckett, Barbara Krusi, Liddy Beardsley splashing their ties poolside.

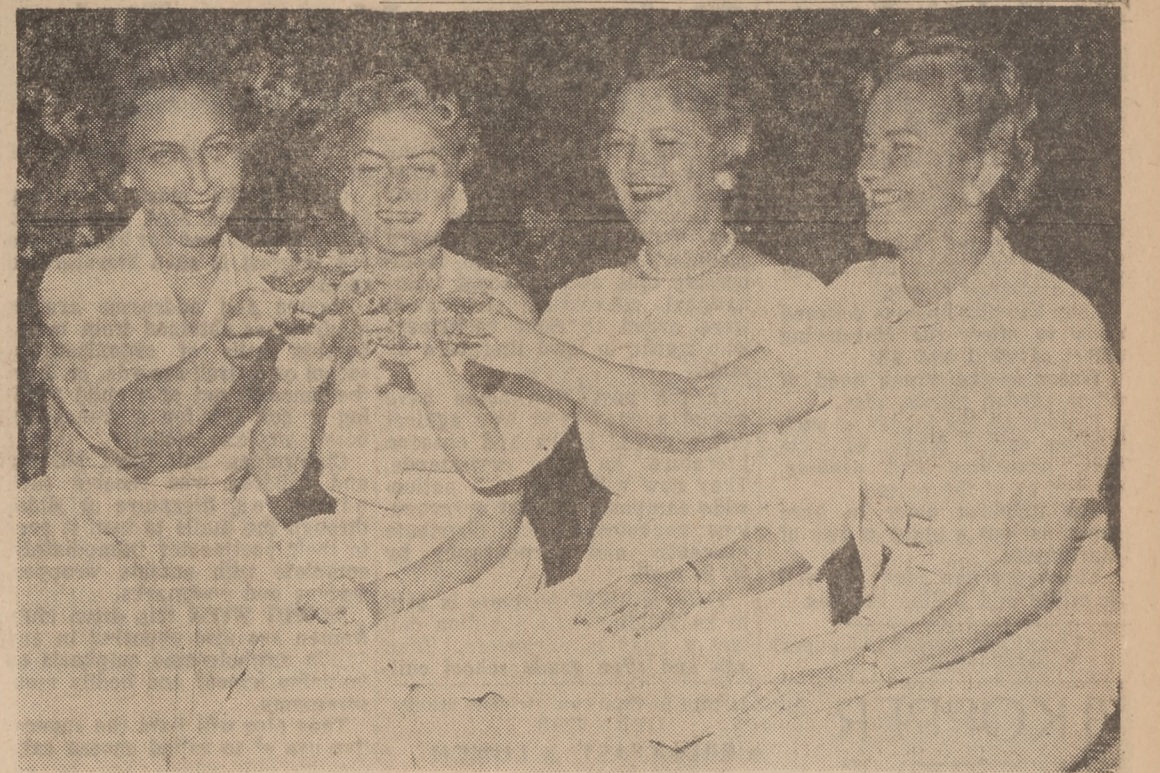

Dives and dips for Jean Angell and Dianne Haslett, Dianne changing from a Lanz gingham into a sleek black suit (the better to swim in, my dear). Barbara Smith sampling a cooler with Carolyn Havre, they hailing Carolyn's twin sister Provisional Marilyn Eichelberg of Lafayette. Katie Nutting of Walnut Creek wearing a fish print. Connie Rowe of Danville trimly tucked into khaki shorts, print shirtwaist. Strawberries on white pique for Ginnie Hamilton of Lafayette and a gargantuan grasshopper, the teasetrim on Mickey Simpson's hat. Nancy Longacre with Jeannette Howard, Dosh Sleeper of Walnut Creek, more from here in the crowd. Two fench poodles, pets of Jane's, playing tag across the lawn.

A wonderful way of welcoming provisionals that also included Carol Orichson, (she in red, white and blue), Barbara Flinn, Suzanne Denault, Louella Dunn, Sally Chapman, Jennifer Carter and Mary Alice Ramsden, all young Contra Costa matrons.

Woman's Club Names Guests

Dessert and coffee at the home of Mrs. Edward Patterson was served recently to welcome 16 prospective new members of the Orinda Woman's Club.

Mrs. Henry Soubielle and Mrs. Calvin Schaefer, co-chairmen of the event, introduced club officers and major committee chairmen, who gave the new members some of the background and work of the organization.

The affair was hosted by the members of the board. Those to be initiated this fall include the Mesdames R. Bruce Hoffe, Donald Peterson, Kenneth Flanagan, R. L. Cook, Jay Foss, Edward Adams, Clyde St. John and Robert Green.

Don't Let Your Fuchsias Set Their Seed Pods

Here are things to do in your garden this week.

Don't let fuchsias set seed pods.

Pick the faded blooms off before they get that far if you want continued bloom.

Keep hanging baskets watered daily to offset the fast-drying effect of wind and air.

Water is the great need of other garden plants, also.

Keep it on the leaves of such shallow rooted plants as fuchsias, camellias and azaleas, as well as at the roots.

For quickest color in bare spots, set out a plant or two of Marguerite.

Check the new pinks as well as white and yellow varieties.

Clubwomen Vow to Fight Smut Literature to Kids

At the June business meeting of the Women's Club of Walnut Creek, two delegates, Mrs. Arthur H. Larson, club president, and Mrs. Orin Boslar, state board member, reported to the membership that at the recent international convention clubwomen were urged to fight racketeers who traffic in lewd literature by mail.

In the past clubwomen have waged a successful war against crime comic books and obscene literature on the newsstands. They now will conduct a nationwide campaign against unscrupulous racketeers who distribute obscenity and pornography by U. S. mail.

THIS ILLEGAL business is said to be yielding half a billion dollars a year to purveyors. Teen age and even grade school children are the principal targets of this trash.

One of the most dismaying facts, reported Mrs. Larson, is that children need not have shown any interest in such literature to receive it.

Names and addresses are in many cases obtained from membership rolls of organizations, school or church records, or from the innocent act of a child sending a box top for a free cardboard airplane model.

Clubwomen will urge parents and children who receive such pictures, literature or slides through the mails to turn it over to their postmaster immediately, complete with outside wrapper, stamps and postmarks.

ALONG WITH this drive clubwomen are also opposing in any media unwholesome emphasis on feminine appeal and bodily measurements.

They also will fight the suggestive use of so called cheese cake photography which has so accustomed the public to bodily exposure that it is willing to accept with an indifferent and tolerant attitude the obscene, filthy literature now being distributed.

Among other resolutions adopted by clubwomen were the encouragement of further research and control of air pollution, and also support of appreciation to the Pure Food and Drug Administration adequate to safeguard the health and welfare of the American people.

ADOPTED, TOO, was giving full support to major national voluntary health and welfare agencies which contribute to the advance of scientific research and medical knowledge, a move to urge control and direction of air traffic to insure safe operation of both military and commercial planes; and a resolve to encourage television networks, producers, and sponsors to present more educational programs.

Of special interest to California delegates was the change in the national by-laws which made con-

"IT'S MY INVESTMENT in health," says Mrs. Mary A. Nejedly of Walnut Creek, as she writes her check for the John Muir Memorial Hospital building fund. Her contribution is the first received at the 1353 Locust Street volunteer office handling the hospital's $750,000 building fund drive. Looking on is Bruce Copeland, chairman of the hospital board of trustees.

Sewing Group's Meeting Planned

The '42 Sewing Club of Alameda Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet on Wednesday at the home of Miss Harriet Trumbull, 595 Walnut Avenue, Ygnacio Valley. A dessert, served at 12:30 will precede the regular business session.

Assisting will be Mrs. Mary Mendenhall and Mrs. Lucy Whyte as co-hostesses.

There will be no meeting of the club in July and August.

Conservation of natural resources a major department.

JAYCEES WORKING with the Contra Costa Tuberculosis and Health Association's Patient Services Committee, chairmaned by Mrs. June Terry, Walnut Creek, and Covert, plan to complete the outdoor resting area for TB patients in three Saturdays of work.

HARDTOP HI LITES

Races Tomorrow; Chaos Wednesday at Speedway

Gene Dudley, the Napa Flyer, is hot in pursuit of his lost title, and chances are very good for his regaining it.

Dudley took his second main event in a row Saturday night at Contra Costa Speedway. This, coupled with winning the second heat, gives him a very large jump up the point list.

THE TROPHY Dash, which was run between the four fastest qualifiers, was won by Carl Carr of San Francisco, with LeRoy Geving of Petaluma, second.

Wally Baker of Sacramento, did not qualify for the main event, but was able to take the checkered flag first in the first heat and the semi main.

Johnny Franklin, BCRA point leader so far this year was unable to score a victory, thus narrowing the wide point margin he held.

Guys and Dolls Club Will See 'Guys and Dolls'

The new San Francisco Guys and Dolls Club, local social organization, will sponsor a special theater party Friday night at the Opera Ring where the musical comedy, "Guys and Dolls" is currently playing on weekends.

Elaine Tennyson, social director of the Guys and Dolls Club, will also hostess a cocktail party after the theater performance at the club's headquarters, 466 Geary Street.

The Frank Loesser musical hit, which opened in April, is scheduled to run through September and reservations for group theater parties are now being accepted for performances throughout the summer run.

For information regarding ticket party rates, phone UN 1-1208.

Class C: Mrs. William Helfrich, 50-16-33; Mrs. Justin Knowlton, 46-12-33 1/2; Mrs. Baxter Conner, 49-15-34; Mrs. R. D. Fish, 49-13-36; Mrs. James Miller, 48-12-36.

Walnut Creek

Package Deal Available To Walnut Creek Owners

Want a package deal that would give you reliable house maintenance and repair service at your command 24 hours a day on a seven day week basis?

If you do, rest easy. It so happens there's exactly that kind of service available in Walnut Creek. Just contact Mrs. Vivian Wheaton, 2078 Mt. Diablo Boulevard—that's all. THE SERVICE provided by Mrs. Wheaton will give you emergency service at prevailing prices immediately—within a reasonable time otherwise — regardless of whether your need is for a plumber, an electrician, or just all-around maintenance. "Just call me," says Mrs.

Wheaton, "and I'll furnish you with a single home repair clearinghouse, and bill you with just one bill once monthly." Chances are most home owners would even be glad to pay an annual fee for this service. At least that's the way it works. Mrs. Wheaton charges a $10 an-annual fee to members who regularly subscribe to her service. THEN, IF A member wants a plumber one week, a plasterer the next, Mrs. Wheaton furnishes both at prevailing prices and submits a monthly bill to cover the cost of the house maintenance. Convenience of the system, most home owners find, lies in the fact that only one bill comes to the household for all repair services. Then, too, some say, the phone book is not worn out with constant thumbing to locate elusive repairmen. The idea behind Mrs. Wheaton's service is basic. She furnishes the right contractor to the right home owner. She collects her commissions from the contractor. Membership fees cover the cost to the householder.
